1-1/2 hours playing time

check these unusual features:

Dual-language recording! First an English sentence, then its foreign equivalent—then a pause while you repeat.

Convenient 128 to 224 page manual with full record text plus phonetic transcription. Carry it with you in travel.

Indexed! No other set gives every important word at the flip of a finger.

Native speakers! Professors at major universities—Columbia, New York University, University of Pennsylvania, etc.

Realistic! Practical! The language as it is actually spoken, ready for use. No "dead wood," but essential, useful matter, for use in restaurants, shopping, sightseeing, emergencies, inquiries—over 50 categories in all.

High fidelity! No finer records in any language course.

how LISTEN & LEARN can help you:

TRAVEL: Teaches the sentences, phrases, and words you'll really use. Save time and money. Be understood when you buy. Leave the usual tourist tracks. Speak directly to foreign business acquaintances.

SCHOOL: Use Listen & Learn as an introduction to a foreign language via the phrase method advocated by most linguistic authorities. Already used in hundreds of classes all over the country, in high school, college, adult education, and other courses. The only set designed for people with limited study time.

REVIEW: See how easily you can bring back foreign languages you once learned in school.

recent reviews praise LISTEN & LEARN!

"Excellent . . . among the very best," Mario Pei, Professor of Romance Languages, Columbia U. "More genuinely helpful . . . than anything else of the kind," Sidney Clark, author of ALL THE BEST travel series. "High quality, practicality." N.Y. HERALD TRIBUNE.
